'These species are quite fascinating'

The Administration brought in the world renowned psycho-zoologist, Dr. Hillary Maelstrom, to study the "wild life" of Butler County Community College for the past year. His report was fascinating but to tell you about it, here is Dr. Maelstrom:

"Good Day", ladies and gentlemen.

My stay here has led to some startling discoveries concerning the curiously strange wild life that inhabits the campus of this college.

To study more effectively the students of this fine institution, I divided them into three separate classes: the ATHLETICUS CLODUS, the PARTIUS SOCIALIUS, and the BRAINIUS BRAINIUS.

The Athleticus Clodus and the Partius Socialius usually commune with each other quite freely. One of the prime spots for observing this is the Student Union. It contains the recreational activities and refreshments for the students after a hard day of fighting off dangerous teachers (Dangerius Teacherius). Here we see different species grazing together, looking for a prime spot in front of the T.V.

In the Snack Bar the species feed when hungry and fight out differences in a fast-paced game of Foosball or pool.

The Brainius Brainius is a totally different matter. To find this elusive and shy creature we must set up a carefully concealed observation point in the Library. Here the creature quietly mingles with the nosier species, but can easily be identified by the fact he studies.

President Edwin J. Walbourn

Edwin J. Walbourn, President of Butler County Community College, resigned at the end of the fall semester to become executive director of the Kansas Association of Community Colleges.

Mr. Walbourn has been involved in the growth of the college since he came to the campus in 1952 as an instructor. At that time the school had an enrollment of 265 compared to over 1400 this year. He began his work in the administrative branch in 1959 when he succeeded the dean to become acting dean of the then El Dorado

Junior College. He remained in that position until 1963 when he was named the first president of the new county college.

Mr. Walbourn was instrumental in the action that helped make El Dorado Junior College the first county college in the state. In his new capacity, Mr. Walbourn will continue to be closely allied with the progress of the college.

Because of his long devoted service to BCCC, and for his special interest in and understanding of journalism, the staff of the 1976 Grizzly wishes to dedicate this yearbook to President Edwin J. Walbourn.

Dr. Carl L. Heinrich was appointed president of the college in February after a month of holding the title of acting president. He succeeded Edwin J. Walbourn who resigned in December to become executive director of Kansas Association of Community Colleges.

Dr. Heinrich began his teaching career in Great Bend in 1958. From Great Bend he went to Topeka to become Guidance Consultant with the Kansas State Department of Public Instruction. From 1963 to 1970 he was director of the Community Junior College and College Accreditation Section. He then became Director of Community College Education, Emporia Kansas State College until 1974, when he became Vice-President of Butler County Community College. As Vice-President Dr. Heinrich was responsible for developing the highly successful Outreach program.

He was graduated from Kansas State University with a B.S. degree, and he received his M.S. degree from Emporia Kansas State College. Dr. Heinrich earned his Ed. D. degree from the University of Kansas.

Dr. Heinrich is married and the father of four sons. He and his family reside in Augusta.

Voters choose trustees

Setting policy for the college is the primary concern of the members of the Board of Trustees of BCCC.

Other matters with which the Board is concerned include the hiring and dismissal of administrators and faculty members. The Board makes decisions about physical improvements and major purchases for the campus.

The Board members are responsible to the taxpayers of Butler county for the expenditures of their tax dollars for whatever purpose.

Students set own pace

At the Center for Independent Study, students receive college credit for working independently at their own pace while utilizing audio and visual aids and one-to-one instruction. Some of the courses include reading, writing, spelling, and nursing vocabulary. Mary Jo Grant is director of the Center. Staff members include Kay Krause, Vicki Coffel, Cindy Anderson, and Pat Lowrance.

Students counseled

Most students find the services of the Counseling Center quite useful.

Butler College's staff of qualified counselors provide many beneficial services for students such as orientation tests, a file of employment listings, and current college catalogs.

Students with personal problems often visit with the counselors to seek help. Each freshman must visit the Counseling Center once during the semester as part of his orientation course.

The counselors, Bill Trent, Vic Bland, and Judy Strain, also teach academic courses at the college.

BCCC trustees employ Nursing teacher

The Board of Trustees of Butler County Community College met at the college Monday evening, and employed a new instructor in nursing and purchased new school vehicles.

The instructor, Mrs. Debbie Hinnen, is a graduate of the Butler County Community College where she was president of the Student Council. She received her nursing degree at Wichita State University and has been employed at Wesley Hospital in Wichita. Mrs. Hinnen, the former Debbie Bare, is a native of Douglass.

The apparent low bidders for vehicles to replace present college vehicles were Gray Motor Company, El Dorado, for a 15-passenger van for $6,615.89, Parks Motor Company, Augusta, for a 12 passenger van at $6,014.75, and Resnik Motor Company of Whitewater for a station wagon for $5,103.

These were the apparent low bidders and will be awarded the contracts after a check to make sure the vehicles bid meet the specifications. Bids were opened for the present college vehicles, but all were rejected as being too low. The Board ordered new bids to be taken. It was also decided that the college would purchase only one station wagon, and retain the present station wagon with low mileage rather than sell it at this time.

A contract to the All Type Fire Equipment Company of Wichita was awarded as it was the apparent low bidder at $1,144 to install automatic fire extinguishers in the cafeteria and snack bar kitchens. These are now required by a state fire regulation and the bid is subject to the equipment being approved by the state fire marshall.

The Board approved the trial lease contract with the Osage Manor in Augusta for space to operate a branch of the Adult Resource Center in that city. The facility will open this week. It is to be on a three-month trial basis, with an option to renew.

Bills and warrants in the general fund for $122,802.10; in the vocational fund for $20,317.56; social security fund for $16,452.76; and bond and interest payment in the amount of $84,937.93 were approved for payment.

In a lighter vein, the Board was told that the belly dance instructor at the college will teach a class for men if enough desire to take such a class, because of federal law forbidding discrimination on the basis of sex.

Last on the agenda for the special meeting was the hiring of a new athletic director to fill one of the posts left open by the resignation of Boyce, who came to Butler County shortly after mid-term 1973-74. Boyce is leaving to take a position at Wichita State University.

Dr. Heinrich again made a recommendation for one of the open positions, suggesting that head basketball coach Shipley be named athletic director.

After a motion to accept the recommendation for Shipley as athletic director was seconded, it too was passed unanimously by the board.

As of now, both coaches will remain in their present positions, unless decided otherwise in later board meetings.

Jim D'Alesio, former assistant football coach and present data processing teacher, has resigned from teaching. The action came at Monday's Board of Trustees meeting.

D'Alesio, who played pro football for the Denver Broncos, has resigned to take a head coaching position at Kansas City O'Hara High School. There he will coach track.

D'Alesio, a 34-year-old father of three, was graduated from Central Missouri State University, where he was a four-year football letterman. He

STUDENTS

The lot of sophomores is never simple. They must make the decision whether to terminate formal education or pursue higher education.

Sophomores at BCCC are not cohesive as a unit because they are usually busy planning their individual educational, professional, or trade careers for which their two years in college have prepared them.

The common denominator is the hope for achievement of sufficient credits either to graduate or to transfer to a four year institution, or both.

Additional Sophomores
 appear 2nd semester

A strange and bewildering custom which takes place each semester at the college is called enrollment. During this day-long ritual all species line up quietly, wait patiently, and mingle freely while exchanging intelligence concerning idiosyncrasies of various instructors. — Dr. Maelstrom

Freshmen find niches

One hundred degree temperature greeted the freshmen when they arrived on the campus in late August, and before Thanksgiving they were digging their cars out of snowdrifts in the parking lot.

The weather was not the only thing that showed marked differences this year. Freshmen found that student council and freshmen offices had been abolished, so there were no elective offices to run for. Homecoming festivities including election of homecoming queen were also history at BCCC.

Nevertheless freshmen found their niches in activities such as varsity and intramural sports, dramatics, band and vocal groups, and other clubs and organizations on the campus.

ATHLETICS

Cheerleaders generate enthusiasm

An important addition to any athletic event is the spirit produced by the hard-working, fast-performing cheerleaders.

The Cheerleading squad attends all home and on the road games, lending enthusiasm to football, basketball and other sports events.

Volleyball nets good season

The women's varsity volleyball team had an exciting impact at Grizzland finishing the season with 12 wins and six losses.

Four returning team members from last year helped keep the team rolling. They were Pam Van Buren, Kitt Isbill, Debbie Vogts and Vona Rader.

The "B" team season ended with two wins and one loss.

Jeanette Malone coached the volleyball teams.

Cross Country team has disappointment at nationals

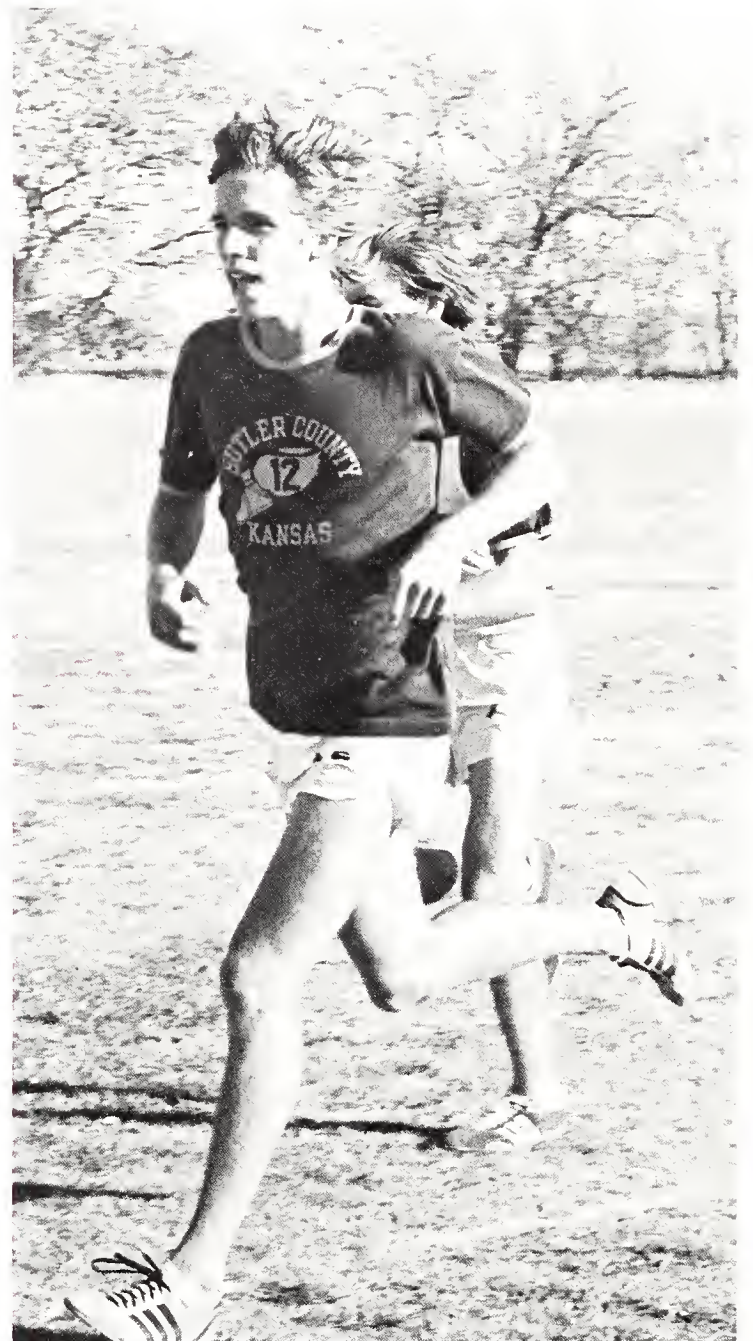

The Butler County Cross country team placed nineteenth in a field of 31 teams at the National Junior College Athletic Association meet in Rochester, Minnesota this year. Coach Ollie Isom said that in past years his teams had placed higher.

Representing the Grizzlies in the nationals were sophomores Alan Adams and Harley Trogdlen, and freshmen Tom Vernon, Roger Rudiger, Fred Torneden and Bill Myers with Mark Kellison as alternate.

BCCC placed second in the Region VI meet to qualify for the national competition.

One of the highlights of the season was winning second place at Wichita State University's Gold Cup Classic where Fred Torneden paced the team by scoring tenth place win in a field of 100 runners.

At their own invitational meet, the Grizzlies came in third with Alan Adams leading the team by taking eighth place.

Hoopsters hit sometimes

The Grizzly roundballers may not have been great this season, but they were more than respectable and a number of times had excellent games.

One of the most impressive games was against Hutchinson which Butler defeated for the first time in six years.

At mid-season, the Grizzlies ranked first in the Kansas Jayhawk Conference. Then they dropped a crucial conference game against Seward County which "blew" the playoff picture.

The Bears placed second in Butler's annual Basketball Classic tournament by defeating Longview, Mo.

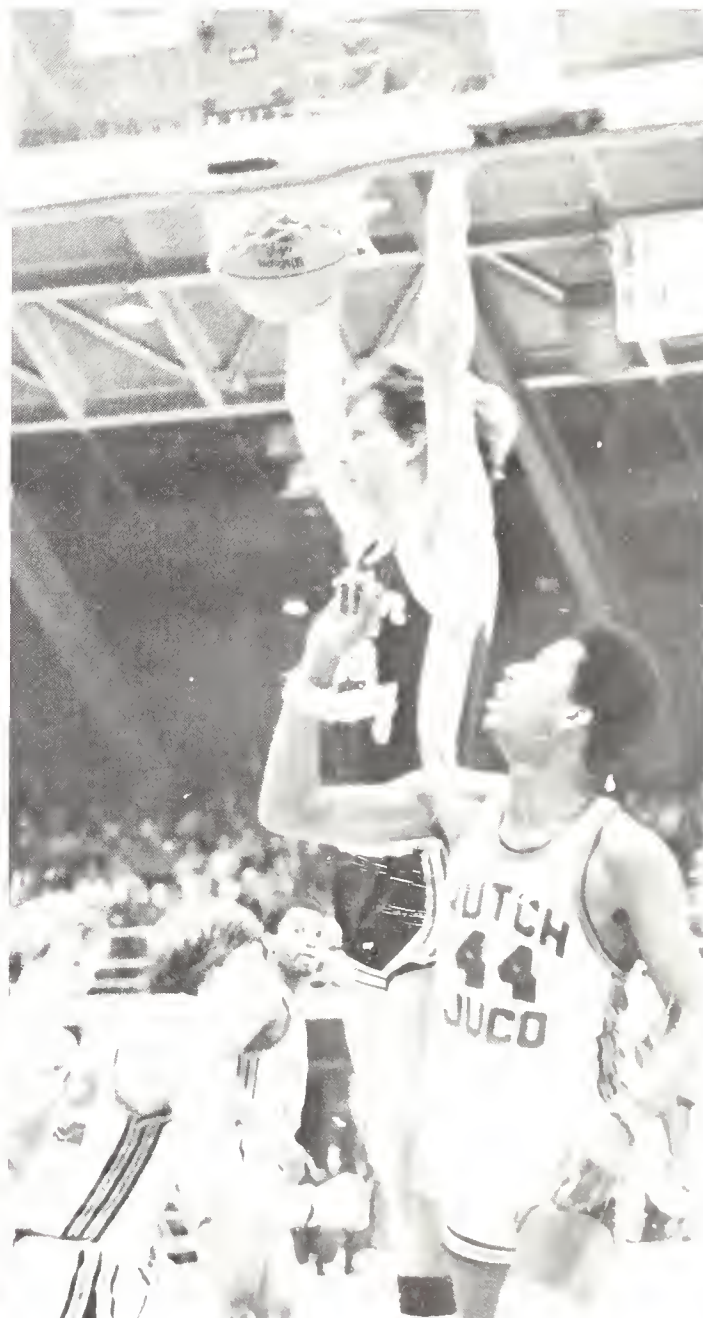

Curt Shipley coached, assisted by Gene Arnold.

Women field team

Bounding on to the court for its first season in inter-collegiate competition was the BCCC women's basketball team, and it started the season with a stunning victory over Cowley County.

Two-thirds of the way through the season the women's team stood with an 8-4 record. Coach Ev Kohls felt that the feminine players would have an excellent record for the over-all.

Much of the competition had fielded teams before and had veteran players. Butler's "green" team made a splendid showing.

WOMEN BASKETBALL players include (Front Row From 1.) Vona Rader, Dana Jordon, Diane Marsh, Vicki Herpich, Susan McDermitt, Cindy Price. (Second Row) Robin Wallace, Debbie Prewitt,

Track wins begin

Spring track and field season is underway at Butler in late winter before basketball season is over.

The Grizzlies first competitive meet was out of state at the Oklahoma City Indoor. The two mile relay team garnered second place in the tough competition there.

Full results of the Bear's track record will be presented in the yearbook's summer supplement.

ACTIVITIES

The play is a success

"The Desperate Hours," a tale of terror, was the drama department's first fall presentation. Darryl Patten directed the play.

The story line concerned a family held captive by desperadoes, and it provided many tense moments for the audience.

'Butterflies' hit

A decided hit was the theatre department's second presentation of the season, "Butterflies Are Free."

The play starred Ray Jantz and Cindy Cox with supporting persons Debbie Whitson and David Herrin.

An element of uniqueness concerned the star of the play, Jantz, who portrayed a blind man in the drama. Sophomore Jantz is himself blind and "Butterflies" was his first dramatic attempt.

The play received "rave" reviews with Jantz's performance singularly pointed out. Darryl Patten directed the production.

Musical salutes the Bicentennial

"A Time to Act," a musical production by the BCCC players was the college's salute to the bicentennial year.

The production was presented to more than 3,000 school children in Wichita and El Dorado by the performers. Darryl Patten directed the production which was written by Sam Rulan, a Philadelphia playwright who wrote it especially for the theatre group here.

The entire production takes place on the stage of the "Old Southwark Theatre" in Philadelphia in 1776.

Marjorie Marsh and Karla Knaussman furnished the musical background for the play.

Music groups make big sound

Both vocal and instrumental music at Butler are under the direction of Robert Anderson.

The singing group called the "New Horizons" proved popular in all its public appearances.

The instrumentalist produced both a pep band which played at the home games and a stage band which specialized in jazz.

The musical groups are small, but their quality has been acclaimed.

Campus Crusade leads attendance

Campus Crusade for Christ, a campus organization concerned with reaching out to students on campus in the spirit of Christian fellowship, and bringing them to Jesus Christ, has in the past years been one of the largest and most active groups at BCCC. Campus Crusade (CATGIF, Christians Also Thank God It's Friday) kept the tradition this year with the largest attendance of any club on campus. On the average there were 30 people meeting in the Purple and Gold Room each Friday.

The executive committee members are Kathy Allison, Don Carbon, and Brad Brown. Special activities this year were a talent show, hayrack ride, and a joint session with the Black Student Union.

Distributive Ed markets products

Members of DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) received news this year that BCCC's program had been selected as one of the four outstanding programs in the United States.

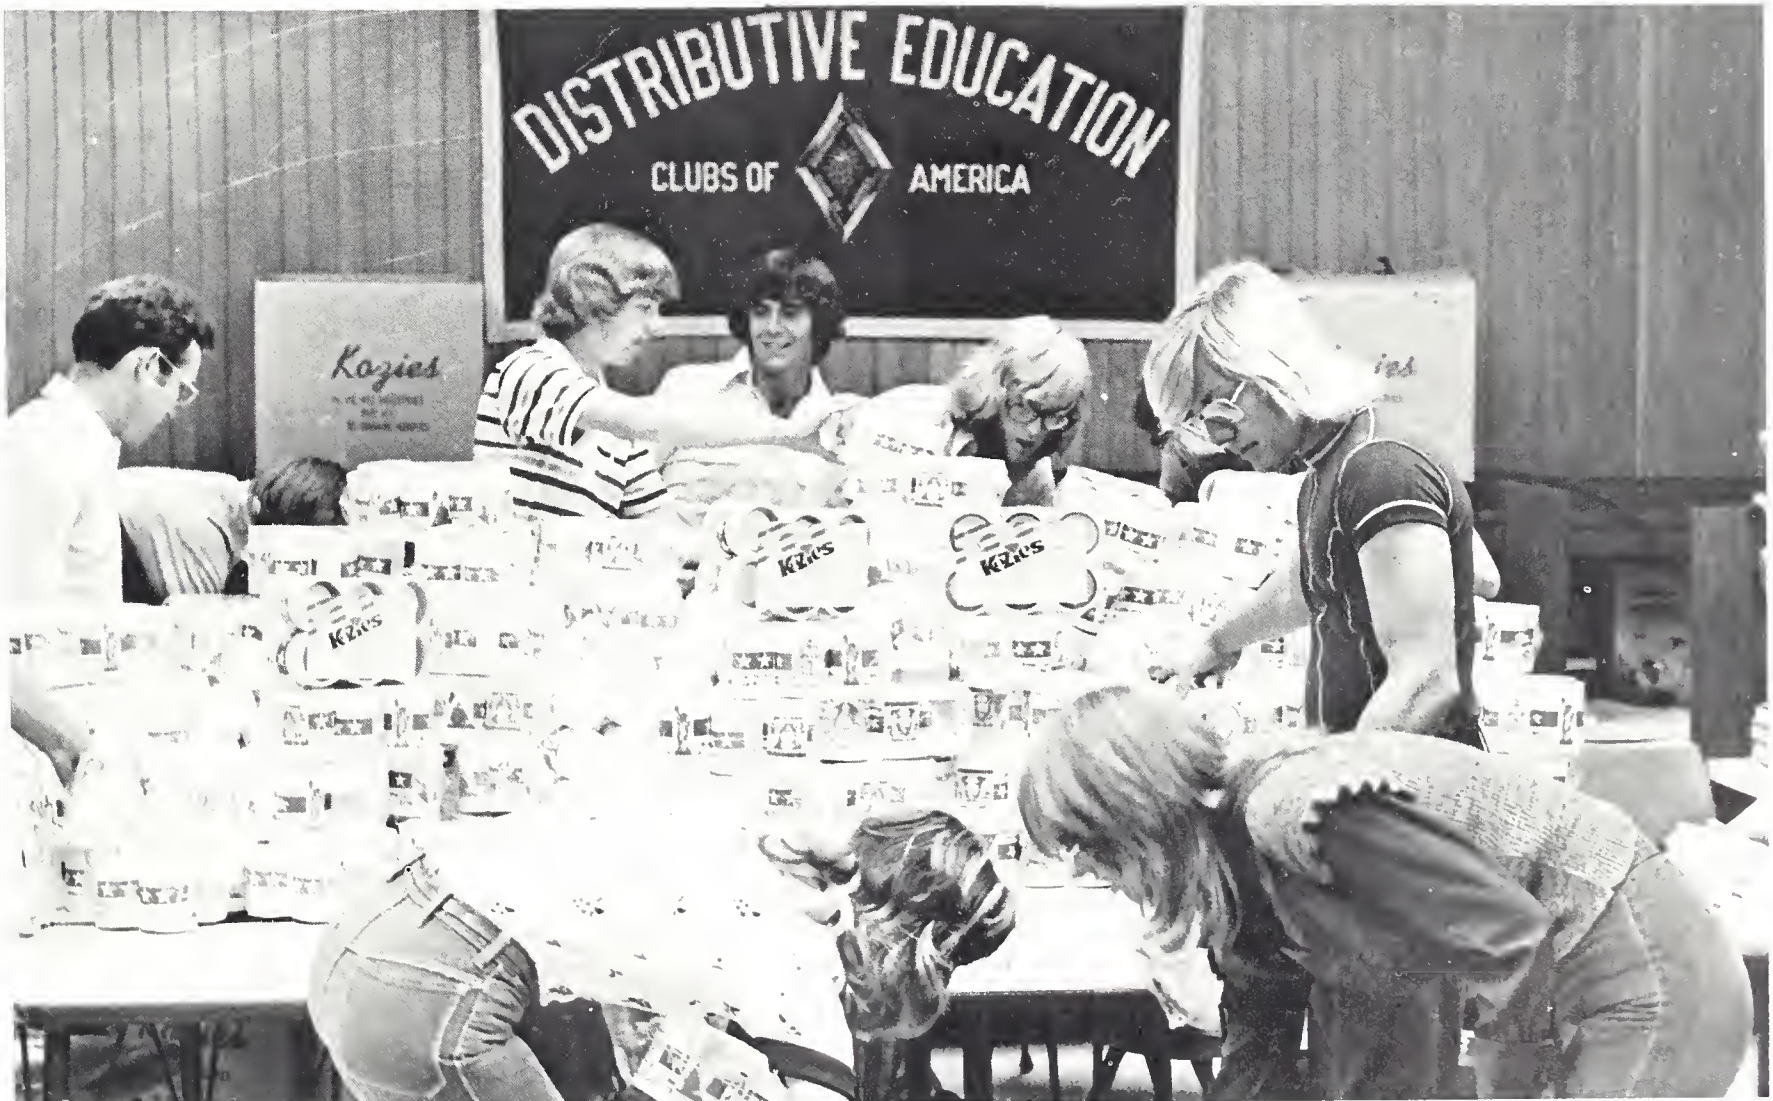

Butler's DECA chapter has earned an enviable reputation on the national level during the past five years having won 23 national awards.

Formerly called "marketing technology," the program at Butler is now officially called "Career Development in Marketing."

Students in Distributive Ed participate in complete marketing programs for new items. The "Kitty John" was one of the successful marketing programs.

The "Kozie," an insulated cup, was chosen this year to be the program's national marketing project.

Dr. Herman Ogg is faculty director of the program.

'The Lantern' wins awards

The Lantern is the largest community college newspaper in the state. It is produced weekly by students enrolled in the journalism classes. Published on Thursdays, the paper informs the campus and community of events of interest to the area.

The BCCC journalists have been honored with the bulk of the awards in the State Junior College Journalism competition for the last three years. From 1973 through 1975 the students have won top awards in the contest for newswriting, layout, and makeup.

Staff requires many talents

Although the yearbook is a production of a journalism class, the preparation of it is a study in graphic arts, art, photography, and writing. The total product takes varied talents.

First semester workers were Arlyn Ray (chief photographer) Jack Baker, Penny Hall, Nancy Bishop, and Cindy Haines.

Second semester, survivors Ray and Baker were joined by a strong new team consisting of Kathy Cartwright, Kala Burhenn, Mark Holmes, and Fred Tornado.

Contributing photographers included Steve Seymour, Pat O'Brien, Mike Esau, Robin Wagoner, Carl Dennett, Kim Kimbro, and Mike Ketteman.

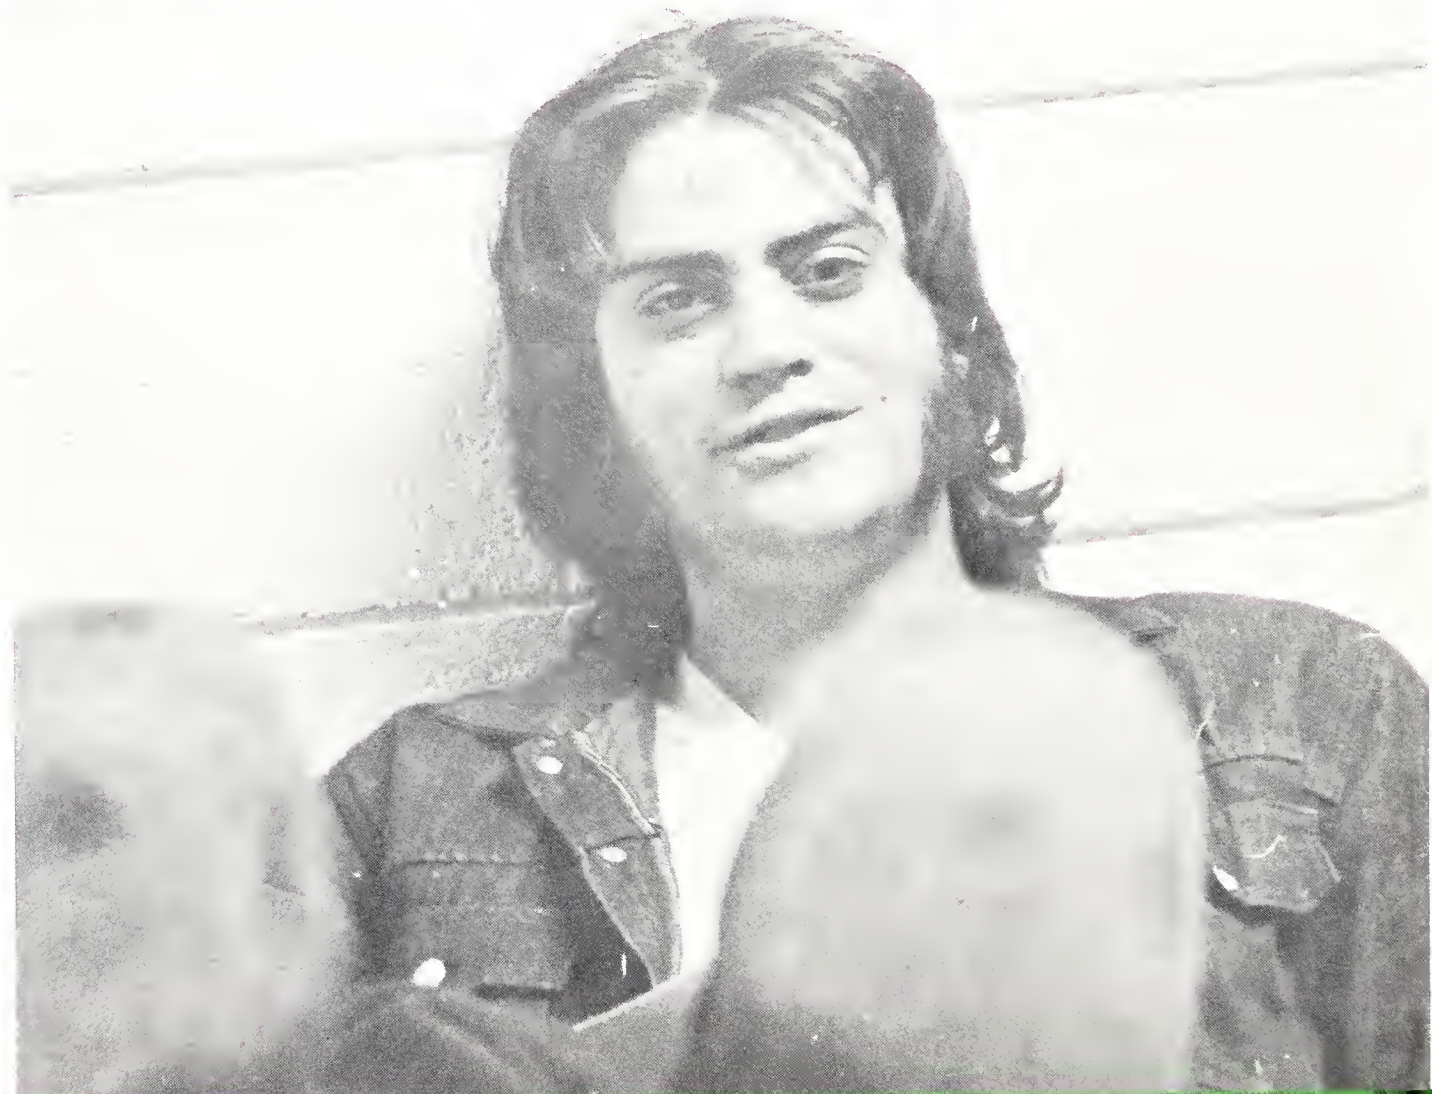

Jo Ann Rogers is faculty adviser.

Dr. Mailstrom observes:

"The yearbook room is a strange scene. Students are buried in mounds of paper, photographs, and flotsam from other journalism classes. Wild music plays in the background while students and instructor labor quietly, confident that out of all the debris will come the book."

Dorm habits revealed

Doctor Maelstrom discovered at the northernmost point of the campus in a humid and windy area a structure partitioned according to sex and genera of its some 100 "dormus residentius." He observes:

Here the "humongous humongous," one especially primitive species of the "athleticus clodus," can be found. He co-exists noisily with the "partius socialius" and the "brainius brainus."

The "humongous" can be identified by his craving for pigskin while the "brainius" silently munches double-fudge brownies in her cement block cubicle. The "partius" never eats; he only drinks — at select watering-holes such as the Lighthouse where he is sometimes joined by "humongous."

Presiding over the premises is a rare and exotic species known as "dormus motherus," familiarly called Mrs. "M" by the inhabitants. Her usual stoic reverie is broken only by an occasional sounding of the fire alarm

Tracksters 3rd in conference

Track and field Grizzlies ended the season with a third place ranking in the Jayhawk Conference.

Six Butler men including Al Adams, Kenny Beckman, Rex Roney, Willy Bell, Joe Deggs and Fred Torneden qualified for the nationals with wins at the Region VI meet in Hutchinson. Al Adams was the only Grizzly to make it into the finals at nationals where he looked good in the 1500 meter run.

Golfers rank 5th in league

Jim Richmond highlighted the golf season for Butler by qualifying for the national tournament in Galveston.

Coach Charlie Harris directed a six member squad to a fifth place finish at conference.

Mitch Merrill was named to the second team All Conference and finished eighth overall in the league. Jim Richmond and Kelly Mirt finished 22 and 24 respectively. Other members included Richard English, Brad King and Mark Schear.

Women tracksters small in number

Although only four women finished the track season this spring, each one of them placed for Butler in a competitive track meet. Pam Van Buren and Kitt Isbill, sophomores, and Beverly Steeby and Cynthia Price, freshmen were the women who carried the colors for Butler in intercollegiate competition.

At the Butler County Relays, Isbill placed second in the discus and Price placed fourth in the same event. At the Hesston Invitational Steeby won third in the high jump and Van Buren was fifth. Price came through with a second in javelin and third in discus at the same trial. Isbill was fourth in the discus.

The Hutchinson Relays found Butler winning with Steeby garnering a second place in high jump and fourth in long jump. Van Buren took a sixth in the same event.

Jeanette Malone coached the team.

Intramurals are popular

Butler had a successful intramural season in three sports: coed volleyball, coed table tennis and men's basketball. The programs provide students with a chance to get together on the campus for friendly competition.

The champion volleyball team was "The Bombers," comprised of Debbie Vogt, Jan Megredy, Kala Burhenn, Alan Hoggatt, Steve Pletcher and Mike Esau.

Winners of the table tennis tournament were: men's; John Meyer's, first; Ricky Richardson, second; women's; Cynthia Price, first; Beverly Steeby, second.

Seven teams participated in intramural basketball involving approximately 50 men. "SWAT" won the championship with a win-loss record of 6-0. SWAT members included Marshall Parker, Craig Davis, Ed Thompson, John Wright, Benny Castile, Mike Stevens and Wendell Holmes.

ARC offers varied courses

The Adult Resource Center, located off-campus in downtown El Dorado, has been a part of BCCC for ten years. The center is a part of the college's program for reaching out to the community.

Varied programs of general and specific interest are offered to the general public.

One of the most popular areas of the center is the facility for studying and testing for the GED.

Four counties are included in the area the Resource Center serves. In addition to the El Dorado center, there are several satellite centers.

Joy Choens is director of the center with a staff of seven.

Nurse Club organized

THE NURSING CLUB'S primary function is to provide a form of organization for the student nurses at Butler. Four student representatives attended the National Student Nurse Association convention in Kansas City in the spring along with the sponsor, Debbie Hinne. (1) Ida Burton and Paula Storey are training at Susan B. Allen Memorial Hospital. (2) Club officers pictured are (From Left) Christa Voth, student/faculty representative; Randi Solis, Caroline Pyles, student government representatives; Donna Prigmore, secretary-treasurer.

Outreach grows

The Outreach program which began on a small scale in the fall of 1974 came into full swing in the spring of 1976 with approximately 300 persons enrolled in various classes in communities surrounding El Dorado.

A broad spectrum of classes are offered varying from belly dancing to advanced mathematics.

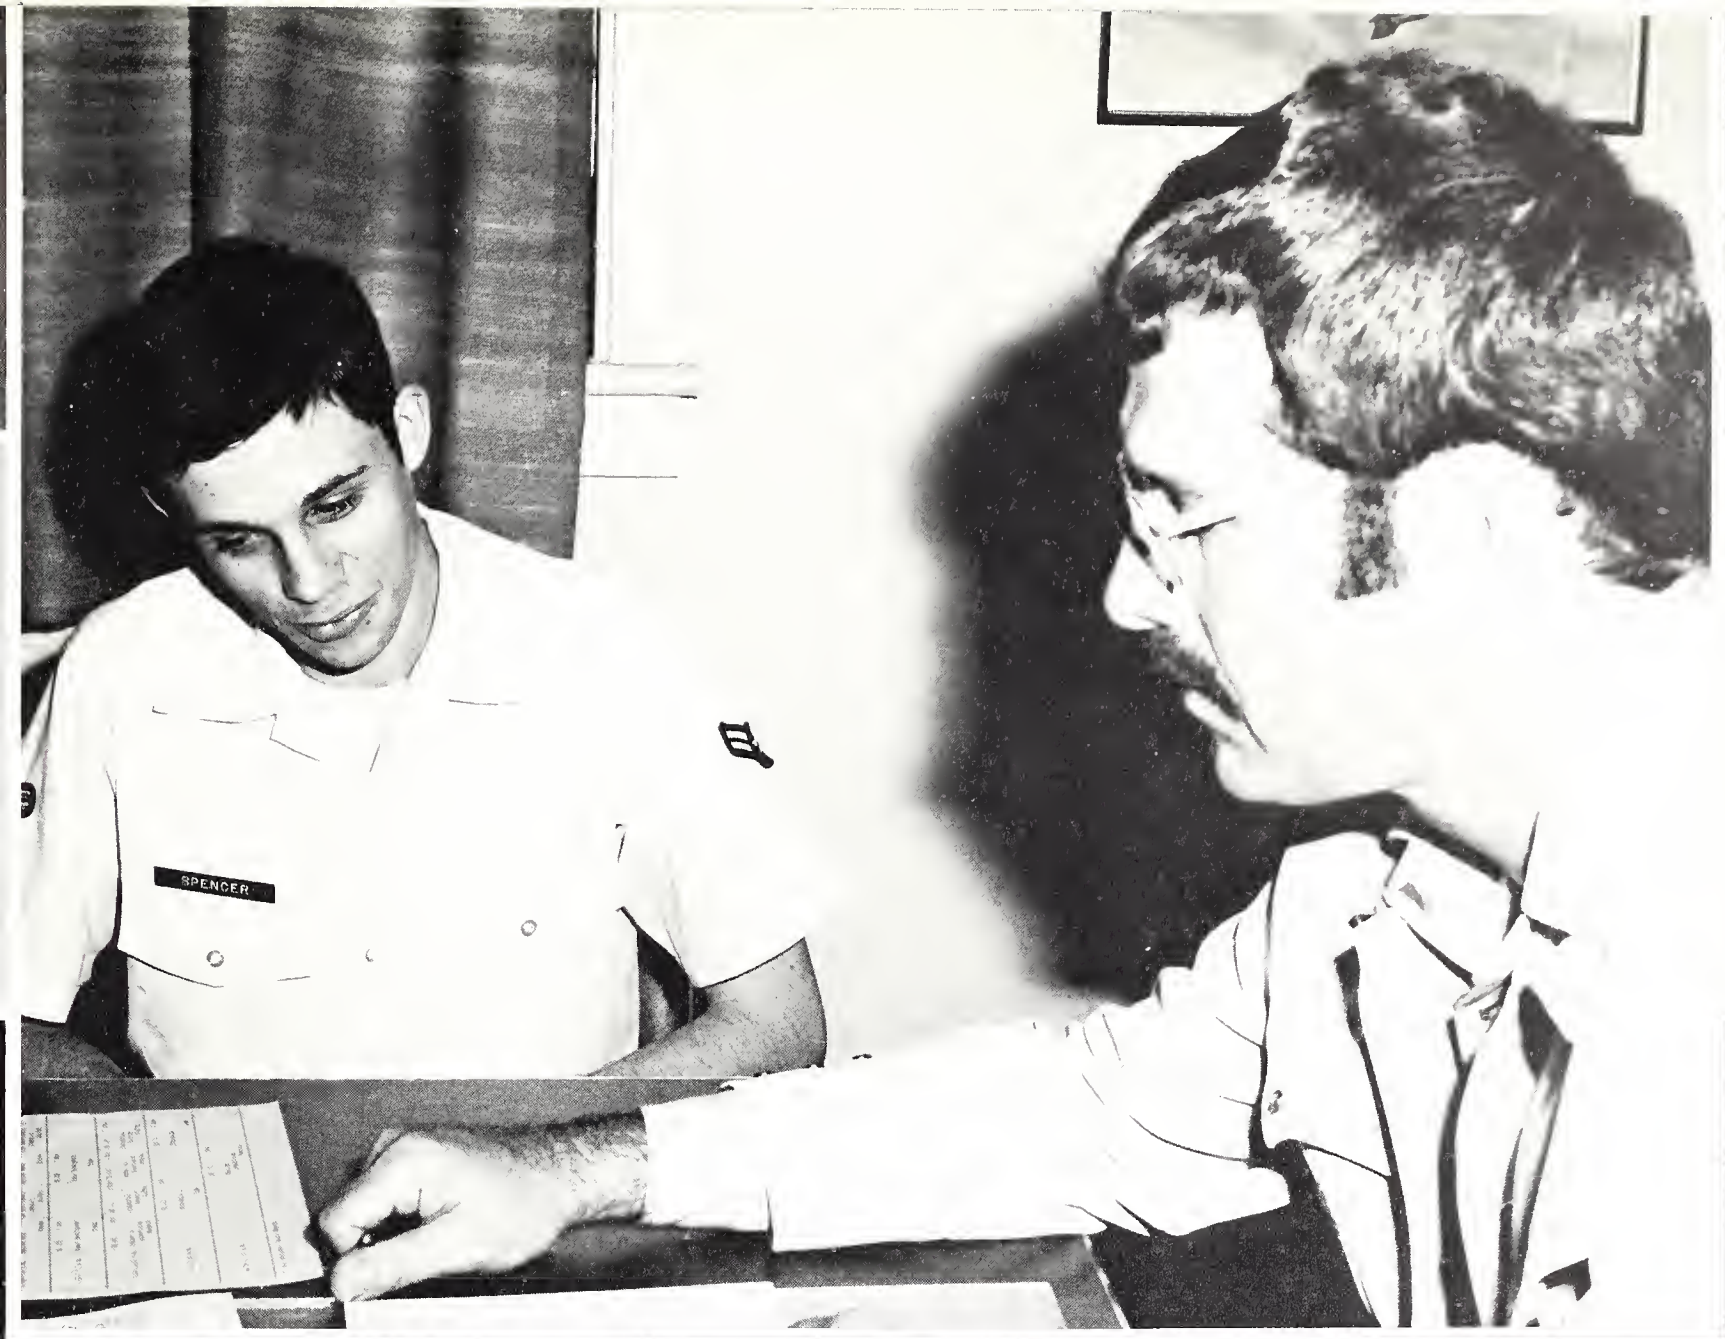

The largest off-campus situation is at McConnell Air Base in Wichita where many classes are offered primarily in academics.

The Outreach program has great growth potential and is one of the most rapidly expanding facets of college life both at Butler and throughout the nation, according to Dr. Carl Heinrich, president.

DECA wins national honors

Members of the BCCC DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) chapter won the first place in the national contest this spring with the chapter marketing research project. The award was given at the national convention in Chicago which the chapter attended.

The chapter research project was presented by Mark Hale. Members of Butler's chapter won eleven other national awards.

Gail Stotts, Tony Grunder, and Rolland Church won individual awards. Other students from Butler attending and competing in the national contest in Chicago were Kathy Mayes, Craig Hamilton, Brad Edwards, Brian Forsythe, and Mona Boone.

Dr. Herman Ogg is director of the DECA program for Butler. He developed the program for the college five years ago.

Purple honors scholars

The highest scholastic honors granted to sophomore students at Butler is the Order of the Purple. In order for students to qualify for this honor they must have an overall grade point average for the two years of 3.25.

Order of the Purple has been in existence at BCCC since 1937 when the order was organized to recognize the scholastic achievement of students.

Students eligible for election to the Order were honored at the traditional banquet in the Student Union on April 30. Wayne Livingston, a member of the Board of Trustees, was the guest speaker at the banquet. Betty Prohowsky was chairwoman for the arrangements, and Gayle Krause was master of ceremonies.

After the final computation of grades at the end of the sophomore year, a student is issued a certificate of achievement if he or she has earned the coveted award for excellence. (The complete list of Order of the Purple recipients is given on page 116.)

Mission Accomplished

Graduation ceremonies were held on May 24 for 168 students at Butler.

Charles E. Heilmann, El Dorado municipal court judge and faculty member at Wichita State University, gave the commencement address.

Ralph W. Unger, vice-chairman of the Board of Trustees, presented the degrees to the graduating sophomores.
